

Dialogue Decision Process

The Dialogue Decision Process guides decision makers to a quality decision through dialogue with a project team, creating alignment and commitment to the highest value choice along the way. The DDP is designed to avoid biases and to satisfy the requirements for DQ.

