

Requirements of Decision Quality

The six requirements for decision quality are like a chain. A good decision requires quality on each dimension, and the overall quality of a decision is no better than the weakest link.

