

Slider Scale for Decision Quality

Before making a decision, rate each of the six requirements of decision quality on this scale. 100% represents the point at which the cost of further improvement outweighs the benefit. The weakest link in the chain defines the quality of the decision.

